

— the way I see it, we have 2 weeks left.

Georgia’s voter registration deadline is December 7th. Stacey Abrams, LaTosha Brown, and their coalition of community organizers and activists made HUGE strides when they registered over 800,000 new voters in Georgia, but we need to go the extra mile to ensure every Georgian has the opportunity to vote for Jon Ossoff and Rev. Warnock.

CALL GEORGIA VOTERS

Ossoff and Warnock are two top notch candidates that will deliver real progressive results for Georgia voters like a $15 minimum wage, Medicaid expansion and support of reproductive justice policies.

Democrats win when we expand the map, register voters, and bring in more folks to the Big Tent Party.
